

2025 Fee Schedule

School fees at Swan Hill Christian School (SHCS) are inclusive of all your students' tuition needs such as classroom materials, excursions and camps.

SHCS is open to students and families from all backgrounds and financial situations. We have the flexibility to provide fee assistance to families in special circumstances, and applications are considered on their individual merit. If you would like further information about fee assistance, please contact the Office.

There are additional assistance schemes available for families:

CSEF assistance is a government scheme for Families with eligible Health Care Cards, Centrelink Pensioner Concession or Veteran Affairs Pensioner Card. This provides $125.00 per eligible child annually to contribute to School Camps. Please contact the Office for an application form.

Victorian Conveyance Allowance is available for children who reside in Victoria and are more than 4.8 kilometres from the nearest free school bus service. Please call the Office for an application form.

NSW Conveyance Subsidy is available for children who reside in NSW and are more than 1.6 kilometres from the nearest free school bus service. Application can be made online at transportnsw.info/school-students.
